PROVINCIAL BILL TO BE TAKEN UP NOW.

Government Measure With Amendments Yesterday.

DISFRANCHISEMENT PROVISION.

Filipinos in Arms Against United States After April 1 Cannot Vote or Hold Office-Officers Provided For.

Manila, Jan. 31,-The act organizing municipal governments in the Philippines was passed by the United States Commission to-day after the adoption of amendments, including a provision disqualifying from voting and holding office any person, who, after April 1, is in arms against or aiding those opposing the United States author-

The power to review election irregularities is transferred from the Governor of the Province to the election judges. A proviston is added for returns and records of births, marriages and deaths. The President's symbol of office is designated as a gold-headed tassel cane.

Prior to the passage of the act, Judge Taft, president of the commission, said the greatest pains had been taken in the preparation of the act, because the municipalities were units upon which would be erected the general government.

Provincial Bill is Next.

The provincial government will begin tomorrow. Soon after its enactment, the United States Commissioners will visit the Luzon provinces and witness the organization of the provincial government and the elections. Later, they will visit the southern islands.

The provincial bill provides for a Governor; a Secretary of the Treasury, a Supervisor and a Fiscal. The officers may be Americans or Filipinos. The Governor is to be elected by the joint ballot of the councilors or the organized pueblos (townships) and his election must be confirmed by the Philippine Commission. The other provincial officers will be appointed by the

MAY SETTLE DAM QUESTION.

Compromise in Sight Between New Mexico and El Paso. REPUBLIC SPECIAL

REPUBLIC SPECIAL
El Paso, Tex., Jan. II,—It now seems more than probable that a compromise is about to be effected between New Mexico and El Paso in regard to the inter-ational dam.
tovernor Otero himself has made a thorough investigation, and to-day the following letter from him was received by the El Paso Chamber of Commerce.
"I had the pleasure of meeting Senator Culbertson while in Washington, and had a talk with him regarding the proposed international dam, and I think the matter can be satisfactority arranged in the ruture.

ture.

"All that New Mexico asks, and rightfully and justiy so, is that the State of Texas and the Republic of Mexico do not interfere with her rights. When the objectionable features of Senator Cubertson's bill pertaining to New Mexico are eliminated you will not find any objection from our people."

Council Bill No. 100, as above, was ordered to enrollment.

DEATH OF DR. DAVID FERGUSON. Ex-Member of Board of Curators of Lindenwood College.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

St. Charles, Mo., Jan. 31.—Doctor David W. Ferguson died at his home in this city yesterday evening after a short illness at the age of 83 years. Deceased was born in Warren County, O., on October 7, 1818, and came to Missouri in 1833, locating in St. Charles. Doctor Ferguson was for many years a member of the Board of Curators of Lindenwood College and was quite wealthy. A wife and two children—Mrs. Mary McDearmon of this city and Wilson B. Ferguson of Arisona—survive him. The funeral takes place Friday afternoon.

CHILD BURNED WITH LYE.

During Mother's Absence Accident Befalls Child. REPUBLIC SPECIAL

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

St. Charles, Mo., Jan. II.—Catherine, the infant child of William Worthy, living at Orchard Farm, this county, was badly burned about the fact with concentrated lye. The mother had placed the can of lye in a cuoboard and stepped out into the yard a few minutes, leaving the baby in the cradle. She heard a scream, and, running in, found that the child had climbed out of the cradle and spilled the lye into its face, badly burning it. It is feared the eyesight will be destroyed.

WOMEN OPPOSE CHILTON'S BILL.

Minnesota Stirred From One End to the Other by His Marriage Measure.

Minneapolis, Minn., Jan. 31.—The bill of Senator Chilton, just introduced into the Minnesota Legislature, probibiting mar-riages between certain people and placing the age limit for women at 45 years, has stirred the State from one end to the other. Almost without exception the women de clare the bill is a direct slap at them, inasmuch as it plainly says that none of them, after reaching the age of 65 years, should OBJECTED TO SPECIAL JURY.

Attorney Refused Writ of Prohibition by Supreme Court.

Jefferson City, Mo., Jan. II.—Before the Supreme Court in banc to-day Attorney Alfred Gfeller of St. Louis asked for a writ Alfred Gfelier of St. Louis asked for a writ of prohibition against Judge Fisher of the Circuit Court of St. Louis and the St. Louis Transit Company. Mr. Gfelier has a damage suit against the company pending in Judge Fisher's court, in which a special jury has been ordered, and he does not wish to have the rights of his client determined by the special jury. For that reason he asked the court to prohibit the Judge and the Transit Company from proceeding under the order for a special jury. But the Supreme Court refused to issue the writ, the Chief Justice stating from the beach that there were no questions involved in the proceeding that could not be determined just as well by writ of error or assess.
